Program: Taking Great pictures of Flowers and Nature with an emphasis on Cell phone cameras

Presenter: Clayton Fogle, well known photographer, speaker and instructor. Photography has been a life-long passion. He began as a free-lance photographer while in the Air Force, then worked as a staff photographer at a Santa Barbara, CA research firm for 18 years. Then, he decided he needed to share his knowledge and passion for photography and began teaching, something he continues to this day. He is currently teaching at Mount San Jacinto College. Clayton has travelled around the world speaking and taking pictures. As Professor of Photography in 1999, aboard the SS Universe Explorer, he travelled around the world in 90 days and photographed 11 countries for the University of Pittsburg Semester at Sea. He has had pictures published in National Geographic, Birdwatcher's Digest, Zoo Life, and Shutterbug.

Admission is free to the public. Come and enjoy delicious snacks and then learn about taking wonderful pictures with your cell phone! A drawing for a photograph by Mr. Fogle will be held during the meeting.
